

Dear Parents:

Testing for EOY (End of Year) is next week. Please don't go on vacation!! This is not a cram all the info at the last minute time. I expect students will do well in all categories. Now if I can only get them to put their names on homework!! Eating good breakfasts and getting enough sleep are important gerunds. Ask the students to diagram that sentence.

Big 100 people test on Friday 9 May. The students have been preparing for this all year. How many do their parents know?
